PERFORMANCE GROUP DETAILS

The Museum of Science and Industry offers the opportunity for your band, orchestra or choral group to perform among our 14 acres of award-winning exhibits and immersive experiences. Your group will perform in the only remaining building from the 1893 World's Fair "White City," which is filled with amazing, hands-on experiences such as a 40-foot tornado, mirror maze, Boeing 727 and a human-sized hamster wheel.

- Once your completed booking form is received, we will email you a reservation confirmation email.
- Your final count, payment and playlist are due 30 days prior to your visit.
- Please refer to the booking form for specific guidelines that must be signed by the director for each group.
- A staff member will accompany the group upon arrival and throughout their performance to assist and answer any questions.
- The performance ticket includes Museum Entry and an Omnimax movie.

Band and orchestra groups perform on the Main Level by The Great Train Story exhibit. Chairs and electricity are included for no additional cost. The maximum number of performers is 50 to 55, depending upon the equipment they use.

Choral groups perform in the Rotunda on the Main Level. Sound systems are provided at no charge during weekday performances. Please contact us for sound system rates for weekend performances. The maximum amount of choir performers is 65. The group may bring a keyboard or CD to accompany their performance but may not bring their own microphone system. Show choirs are not permitted to perform extensive choreographed dance sequences.

In order to help provide the best experience for your group, please provide any additional details while booking your group. We are honored to provide a venue to highlight the many talents of these groups and take pride in offering a fun and memorable experience!

Please email the completed form to groupsales@msichicago.org or call (773) 753-6853.
